Police Apprehend Suspect in HCC Stabbing Investigators Locate Gilbert Lee Redmond, Jr.

Howard County Police were notified this afternoon that Baltimore police officers arrested Gilbert Lee Redmond, Jr., who was wanted by Howard County Police for attempted murder. Redmond also was wanted on an unrelated warrant in Baltimore.

Redmond stabbed a female employee at Howard County Community College in Columbia on Monday. Baltimore Police spotted his vehicle this afternoon and attempted to initiate a traffic stop. A pursuit ensued and Redmond ran from the car. Police caught up to him and placed him under arrest.
